Love of God and Neighbor

“The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. There is no other commandment greater than these.” Mark 12:31

The first and greatest Commandment is to love God with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength. But Jesus goes on to give us the second most important Commandment. “Love your neighbor as yourself.”

First of all, it’s important to point out that loving God with all your might is the greatest Commandment, in part, because unless you do so, you cannot also love your neighbor. Love of neighbor hinges on whether you love God with your whole being. Only when you love God can that love overflow into other relationships.

When you look at the love of neighbor as an effect of the overflow of your love of God, this second Commandment takes on a clearer meaning. Jesus doesn’t only say to love your neighbor, He says to do so “as yourself.” So how do you love yourself? You do so primarily by fulfilling the First Commandment of the love of God.

Loving God with your whole self is, in fact, the best way to also love yourself. Why? Because we were made for love and communion with God. Loving God is not some extra favor we do for God; rather, it’s a way of fulfilling the deepest meaning of who we are. We are made for love and we are made for God. Therefore, loving God is the best way to love yourself.

From this starting point, we then move to a better understanding of how we are called to love our neighbor. If the fulfillment of loving yourself is found by loving God and being in an intimate relationship of love with God, then you love your neighbor as yourself by drawing your neighbor into a relationship of love with God also. There is nothing you could do that is more loving for others than to act as a bridge between them and God. And the more directly you act as that bridge, the greater your love for them and the more completely you fulfill this Commandment.

Reflect, today, upon the ways that you act as a bridge of love between God and others. Recognize this as your absolute duty, privilege and honor. Commit yourself to a wholehearted love of God and allow that love to overflow and be poured out upon all those with whom you encounter every day. Love is contagious, and it must consume everything you are and everything you do.

This is a continuation on the teaching of the catechism of the Catholic Church

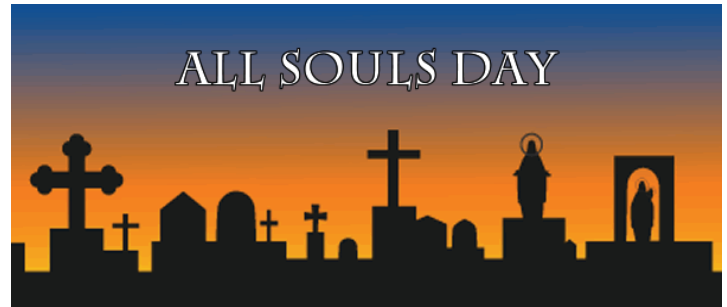

447 Jesus ascribes this title to himself in a veiled way when he disputes with the Pharisees about the meaning of Psalm 110, but also in an explicit way when he addresses his apostles.⁶¹ throughout his public life, he demonstrated his divine sovereignty by works of power over nature, illnesses, demons, death and sin.

448 Very often in the Gospels people address Jesus as "Lord". This title testifies to the respect and trust of those who approach him for help and healing.⁶² At the prompting of the Holy Spirit, "Lord" expresses the recognition of the divine mystery of Jesus.⁶³ In the encounter with the risen Jesus, this title becomes adoration: "My Lord and my God!" It thus takes on a connotation of love and affection that remains proper to the Christian tradition: "It is the Lord!"⁶⁴

449 By attributing to Jesus the divine title "Lord", the first confessions of the Church's faith affirm from the beginning that the power, honour and glory due to God the Father are due also to Jesus, because "he was in the form of God",⁶⁵ and the Father manifested the sovereignty of Jesus by raising him from the dead and exalting him into his glory.⁶⁶

Consolata Missionaries gratefully appreciate your continued support to the their priests and their mission with your donations that help them to continue spreading the Good News to the whole world.

May God bless you abundantly for your generosity.

MONTH OF NOVEMBER - ST. ANDREW PARISH

It is in this month that the Book of the Dead is opened annually and is placed near the altar to allow parishioners to write the names of relatives to be remembered. Mass will be celebrated to commemorate both All Saints Day & All Souls' Day on the following dates and times: Monday, November 1st, at 8:00 am and 7:00pm on Tuesday, November 2nd, at 8:00am and 7:00pm

The ministry of ushering is the service of welcome and hospitality in the church. It includes greeting people as they arrive for the service, assisting people with special needs, and receiving the offering. In our church we have shortage of volunteers in this ministry. We invite all those who would like to serve as ushers to register with our Pastor or with the Usher leader.

The mission of evangelization corresponds to all of us baptized Christians. In our church we have had catechists who are dedicated to the service of preparing people of different stages to receive the sacraments. Unfortunately due to Covid-19 and many years of service, a number of catechists have retired from this ministry. We would like to invite those who want to join this ministry as catechist for Holy Communion and Confirmation, to approach the Pastor.

"Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms." 1 Peter 4:10
