OUR LADY CONSOLATA – PRAY FOR US

Welcome home to St. Andrew

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year B

Prayer and Humility

“Beware of the scribes, who like to go around in long robes and accept greetings in the marketplaces, seats of honor in synagogues, and places of honor at banquets. They devour the houses of widows and, as a pretext recite lengthy prayers. They will receive a very severe condemnation.” Mark 12:38–40

It’s important to note here that Jesus says, “They will receive a very severe condemnation.” These words are spoken from Him who is the source of mercy and grace. His heart is full of kindness and compassion, He is gentle and forgiving, and He wants nothing other than our eternal salvation. And yet Jesus is clear that the scribes will be severely condemned.

The first thing we should think is that we do not want to be like the scribes! We do not want to receive similar condemnation. Thus, we should avoid their state of sin. So that begs the question, “What sin of the scribes earned them this severe condemnation?”

The bottom line is that they were frauds. They were consumed with a desire for “places of honor.” They clearly treated others poorly: “They devour the houses of widows.” What’s worse, they presented themselves as people of prayer when they clearly were not. As a result, Jesus severely condemned them.

So what do we learn from their errors? We should learn at least the following two lessons:

1) The true “place of honor” is the place of the greatest humility. True honor, in the eyes of God, is found when we serve without notice and give without recognition. In this way, our giving and serving are done purely out of a motivation of love and not self-serving intentions. The humble person does not seek to be praised and honored for the love they give. The act of giving and serving is itself the gift they receive.

2) Reciting lengthy prayers is not the same as praying. Prayer is about one thing. It’s about entering into communion with God. It’s about establishing a relationship with Him in a deep, beautiful and abiding way. It’s about love. Prayer is not for show or to gain the admiration of others.

Reflect, today, upon the harsh judgment Jesus issued toward the scribes. Know that this is done, in part, to teach us what to avoid in life. Avoid all selfish pride. Seek humility and true prayer and you will be greatly blessed.

On behalf of the members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at St. Andrew's Parish, we would like to thank our parishioners who provided their used goods to our clothing drive. We received an overwhelming amount of contributions and the bin was completely full. Thank you and God Bless.

It is a new platform that most churches are using to reach their people when they need to. Flocknote is designed to help churches send event notifications, updates, prayer requests, and more to members via email or text messages to their members. Flocknote churches can reach all their members at a moment's notice, resulting in higher attendance, increased stewardship, and a more connected church.

We've adopted a new and improved way of communicating that will make it much simpler for you to get the information you want from us! It's powered by a service called Flocknote. Like sending a "note" to your "flock". Flocknote. This is all totally free for you to use, you don't even have to download anything or create a password in order to participate. You just take a couple minutes to sign up and it lets you receive email or text messages from the groups and ministries that you choose. It even allows you to reply directly back to those messages so we can get feedback and hear from you in an efficient manner.

We're on a mission here at St. Andrew and we want you to be a part of it. This is a great opportunity for you to get plugged in to the many wonderful things we have going on here. This is really going to simplify communication and increase engagement here in our community. To participate in this communication channel, we request you to provide your contact information on the sheets located at the entrance of the Church.

St. Andrew Parish will be remembering all the people who had died during this pandemic, with a Holy Mass taking place on Friday, Nov. 12th, 2021 at 7:00 pm. You are invited to attend.

The greatest joy you and your family will ever have as a baptized Catholic, is having served in any ministry of your Church.

"It is more blessed to give than to receive," Acts 20:30.
